THE ADAMS SENTINEL AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

Abominable.

In the speech of Hester Clymer at Uniontown, as reported for the "Pittsburg Post," we find the following passage:

"By the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, Andrew Johnson became President of the United States. If, under his administration, harmony should come again to the land, who will not see in the auspicious event the spirit of God moving over the troubled waters."

Are we to understand that the spirit of which Mr. Clymer so professedly speaks strengthened the heart and girded the arm of that democratic hero, J. Wilkes Booth, and enabled him to bring about that "auspicious event?" Certain it is, that to Booth Mr. Clymer and his party are indebted for their present momentary gleam of hope; and equally certain it is, that if the party who are now rallying around Andrew Johnson shall be successful, the assassin of Lincoln will be politically canonized as their greatest benefactor. Such is the depth to which an alliance with oppression and treason can sink men, who, if free, would be respectable. What are we to make of the language we have quoted, but the beginning of an effort to rescue the memory of that assassin from an immortally of infamy, and give him a place among the honored agents of Heaven?

SHOCKING ACCIDENT—A Lady Crushed to Pieces in a Mill.—On Wednesday, Mrs. Harlow, wife of Mr. John P. Harlow, wheat receiver at Hazell & Crenshaw's mills, at Richmond, visited the mill in company with two lady friends, to whom she was exhibiting the machinery. While turning to leave the upper story her dress was caught in the conveyor wheels which carry the flour to the superfine bolting apparatus and she was drawn into the machinery. Mr. Taylor, who was standing by, caught her and would have rescued her, but her steel hoop skirt had become entangled in the cog-wheels, and Mr. Taylor's attempts were vain, and he became near being drawn himself into the machinery which in a moment mangled the unfortunate lady in a manner too horrible to contemplate. Her head was severed from her body and crushed to pieces, the brain being spattered in every direction, and was cut into and ground almost to atoms. One arm fell to the lower floor, the other being thrown five feet away from the machinery, and fragments of blood and bones and brains were strewn everywhere.—Richmond Enq.

CATTLE IN TEXAS.—A Corpus Christi (Texas) paper says there is a single stock raiser on the Nueces river, whose brands now cover more than 30,000 head of cattle. They are sold there at about $5 per head. There are now from 60,000 to 100,000 head of Texas cattle pastured along the eastern and northeastern limits of the State, and destined for the cis-Mississippi markets. They are detained where they are by the statutes of neighboring States, which forbid their being driven through them before the tenth of November, the reason being a disease called the Texas cattle fever, which prevails in the summer months, and is contagious. Estimated at only ten dollars per head, there is here a value of $1,000,000 in cattle already under way for the East.

At a late meeting of the citizens of Johnstown, Pa., the scene of the late terrible accident in connection with the President's tour, a resolution was passed suggesting that each merchant, professional man, mechanic and laborer, of Johnstown and neighborhood, should give one day's earnings to the sufferers. Mr. Morell read a letter from President Johnson donating $500, and also one from Gen. John W. Geary, giving $200. He also stated that he was authorized by the Cambria Iron Company to subscribe $1,000.—Mr. M., himself, has also subscribed $200. Late investigations show that only three persons were killed at the time of the accident. One has since died, and of the 350 injured, many cannot survive.

In Valparaiso, Ind., last Sunday, a man named John Weeks was killed by the City Marshal. A daughter of Mr. Weeks had been induced to enter a house of ill-fame. Her father went to induce her to return home, but was not allowed to see her, and, being under great excitement, made a disturbance. The officer, supposing him to be one of the roughs who frequent such houses, attempted to arrest him, and, on his resisting, shot him.

At the Catholic colony of Mellary, the Table Mountain township, about twelve miles southwest from Dubuque, Iowa, the Catholics are about to erect the largest structure in that State. It will be built of brick, upon a stone foundation, will cover more than an acre and a half of ground, will be two stories high, with steeple reaching from the church portion 170 feet, and will cost between $160,000 and $200,000.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 19.—It has rained here incessantly since 6 o'clock last evening, and considerable damage has been done to property in central and southern Ohio. The bridges on the Indianapolis and Cincinnati, the Chicago Air Line, and the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton roads have been washed away, and the trains are delayed in consequence. The Little Miami, Ohio and Mississippi, and Marietta and Cincinnati roads have suffered no damage, and the trains are running regularly.

It is estimated that one thousand persons have arrived at Galveston and Houston, Texas, to escape the persecution of negroes in the interior, who had murdered on both sides indiscriminately, for plunder. Affairs throughout the State are daily becoming worse instead of better, and innumerable outrages are hourly recorded.

A most distressing affair took place in Indianapolis on Saturday. A young man by the name of Leontius Johnson, aged about seventeen years, was shot and instantly killed by his room-mate. Johnson had risen during the night and gone out, and on returning, in opening the door, was mistaken for a burglar by his room-mate, who drew a pistol and fired. The ball passed through young Johnson's head, and he fell dead on the spot.

A Canadian volunteer officer writer to the Montreal Herald that the militia force is almost naked, and that the arms provided are such that the Fenians might fearlessly walk up to the muskets without injury; that the men have not been paid for a year previous to April last, and that unless something is done speedily the volunteer militia of the Province will be rendered worthless.

Those men who harp so much upon "negro equality" have friends in the South who have demoralized the whole negro race and filled the land with modulators, quod-eums, recoms, &c. These gentrified people are not the proper teachers, and we submit that their practice should be better before they come forward as guides.

MASS MEETING!

The citizens of Cumberland and the adjoining counties will hold a grand Union Republican Mass Meeting, at Carlisle, on Friday, October 12, 1866.

All who believe that loyal men should control this government, and that traitors should take a back seat in the work of reconstruction. All who are opposed to traitors being the recipients of the nation's favors, and all who are opposed to the workings of "My Policy," as revealed in the "Memphis riot" and "New Orleans massacre" are cordially invited to attend.

The "Boys in Blue" are invited to come en masse. Cumberland county appreciates and will welcome the men who fought the battles of the Union and carried the Nation's flag through the recent struggle to glory and triumph. The cause of the Union Republican party is the cause of the soldier. It cherishes the memories of those who died that the nation might live, and it will allow its gratitude to our living heroes by entrusting to them the keeping of this Government.

Eminent Speakers will be present and address the meeting.

By order of the Cumberland County Ex. Com.

W. F. SADLER, Chairman.

The sale of Dr. Hall's Farm, by R. G. McCready, Esq., Trustee, is postponed from Friday next until Saturday next. See advertisement.

Rev. Mr. Woodburn will, by Divine permission, preach in the U. P. Church, in this place, on Next Sabbath, at 10 o'clock in the morning and 3 o'clock in the afternoon, on Christ's second coming and the first resurrection.

We observe in the City papers a notice that A. H. Coffroth, of Somerset, has been appointed by President Johnson, U. S. Assessor for this District, in the place of R. G. Harper, removed; and Rufus C. Slope, of Adams, Collector, for whom we have, as yet, been called upon officially—but expect soon to be.

The Fall Session of Pennsylvania College commenced on Thursday last. There was quite a large accession of new students. The Freshman Class numbers between 40 and 50. All the Professors are present except Prof. Fenniman, who, we suppose, has not yet obtained his dismissal from Washington and Jefferson College, in which institution he holds a chair. The other two new Professors, J. H. Crook, A. M., late principal of an Institution at Indianapolis, Ind., and Rev. J. F. Wilken, of Tennessee, are at their posts.

THE CHOLERA IN GERMANY.—A Vienna letter says: "In Kremser, the cholera is increasing rapidly. One thousand Prussians have died there already. The soldiers are made to exercise two hours daily to keep them in health, and they are strongly enjoined to be moderate in food or drink.—In Brunn, also, the malady has increased, to a village near it 104 persons have died out of 1,200 inhabitants. In another containing 400 inhabitants, 60 have died."

A Canadian volunteer officer writer to the Montreal Herald that the militia force is almost naked, and that the arms provided are such that the Fenians might fearlessly walk up to the muskets without injury; that the men have not been paid for a year previous to April last, and that unless something is done speedily the volunteer militia of the Province will be rendered worthless.

SAD.—On Friday the funeral of Miss Josephine Power and her daughter, Miss Rosalie Power, who died on Wednesday from Cholera, took place from the Cathedral. There were four deaths in this one household on Wednesday from this dreadful disease, and one on Saturday last.

CULP'S HILL!

MAJ. GEN. JOHN W. GEARY

THE FIRES OF 1861 REKINDLED!

The Hills of the Battle-field made to Re-verbate with the Shouts of Freedom!

The Union Mass Meeting on Culp's Hill, was one of the largest political gatherings ever witnessed in this country. Our limited time and space will not allow us to give as full report as we should desire. The sun rose in its majesty and the day was auspicious. At an early hour the people came flocking into town from all directions, and at 10 o'clock the delegations began to arrive. The first to enter was that from Straban, numbering probably 200, with martial music and banners and flags all gotten up in excellent taste. The boys in blue were mounted and in the advance. This delegation was followed by a large one from Hampton and Reading townships, mostly mounted. Next came Ennismburg, in its strength, with its music and banners and flags. The Union League from that place helped to swell the crowd. If we wish to learn what true loyalty is, we need only ask the staunch Union men of Maryland, as the mottoes upon their banners showed. Ennismburg was followed with delegations from Mountjoy, Rock Creek, and Freedon, in four horse wagons, and carriages, filled with men and women, and many on horseback. While these were passing through the streets, in came old Mcallen, with "200 majority for Geary," inscribed upon their banners, and accompanied with a fine Brass Band from Bendersville. They were escorted through the town and the greatest enthusiasm. Whilst this was going on a large escort of horsemen, mostly Boys in blue, was being formed, to go out to meet General Geary, who arrived about 11 o'clock from Chambersburg. The General, accompanied with formidable delegations from Chambersburg, Caledonia and Cashtown, was met a few miles out and escorted into town and through the principal streets, amid the greatest enthusiasm. The General rode in an open carriage, drawn by four beautiful black horses, and was greeted at every point by the people. The procession halted in the public square, where a formal reception took place. Col. C. H. Burchell, on the part of the Committee of Reception, spoke substantially as follows:

General—Hon. JOEL B. DANNER,
Vice-Presidents—J. S. Weller, Wm. Emmanuel Busham, Wm. White, Hon. S. R. Russell, James J. Wilts, Geo. Little, Geo. H. Binder.
SCHOLAR—Dr. F. W. Vandersloot, Lieut. W. F. Baker, Serjt. John G. Fly, Lieut. H. C. Grossman, J. E. Flaherty.

Many of our country friends remained in town for this meeting, and the Court House was crowded to overflowing. There were also a large number of ladies present—all anxious to hear Hon. John Cress, who had been announced to address the meeting. This noble and eloquent champion of free principles, was introduced, and entertained the audience for nearly two hours with one of the ablest speeches we have ever listened to. He reviewed the position of parties—past, present and future—as only John Cress can. He handled the Copperheads without gloves, always taking care to call things by their right name. He held the unbroken attention of his audience until a late hour and was frequently greeted with rounds of applause. Thus ended the ceremonies of the 18th. We can look back upon the day with pleasure, and say that we believe it was a day well spent.—STAR.

HEAR WHAT GRANT SAYS!

CLYMER REPUDIATED!

The following remarks of our distinguished military leader, Gen. Grant, made in the most emphatic manner, while travelling with the Presidential party, will be read with interest.

General.—The "Boys in Blue," have done me the honor to request me, in their name, and in behalf of the loyal citizens of Adams, County to welcome to our midst.

We greet you as one of the honored Chieftains of a nation, army or Union, to whose heroism, under God, we are to-day indebted for our existence as a nation.

We greet you as one of the gallant leaders of the Army of the Potowmack, who trod yonder heights in July, 1861, hurled back the armed hosts of treason, then and forever driving the blow which saved the fate of the Republic.

The page of history which is the story of the battle of Fairbury, invests with a lustre which can never fade, the name of the hero of Culp's Hill.

But on an occasion like this, when the hearts of loyal people are swelled with gratuity, words fail to give expression to the feelings of the soldiers of our country. As on a cordial welcome to our own historic town.

But it is not only as a gallant soldier whose brow is decked with the laurels gathered on the battle-fields of the Republic that we greet you. We recognize you in to-day the honest standard-bearer of the great principles of Constitutional freedom, put in issue in the late rebellion of the South who are battling to complete the triumph achieved by the "Boys in Blue" in the shock of battle—as a representative of the popular sentiment which, in October next, will proclaim in thunder tones, that Loyalty must—not Treason—rule this Republic.

Whether a man's sentiments were Johnsonian or Republican, he said he felt that it was an insult to any loyal man to ask him to vote for any candidate who was not a loyal man in 1861. In this connection he said that, without expressing any views of his own for or against the Johnson policy, he yet felt it to be a misfortune for Mr. Johnson that the advanced policy in the States through which he had just passed, Missouri, Illinois and Indiana—in some instances put on their ticket men who in 1861 and 1862 had been guilty of disloyalty to the Government—because though he said to the agent of the French Legation, that he was a good Union man, he yet voted for Johnson.

He said to the agent of the French Legation, that he was a good Union man, he yet voted for Johnson.
